

WILD & SCENIC[®] FILM FESTIVAL

where activism gets inspired

3rd - 5th Grade School Program

Film Descriptions

I Am Salmon

2:59

Connecting humanity with salmon and the sea through the subtle art of poetry and Gyotaku (fish rubbing). In adopting the perspective of this transcendent fish, the beauty and power of the Oregon coast becomes the canvas through which the evolution of the salmon is illustrated.

Packing A Wave

7:54

A young, shipwrecked child arrives unconscious to an apparently paradisiacal desert island. After waking up she explores the island and discovers that it is a landfill.

High Road

12:00

High Road celebrates the unbreakable bond between Paralympian Meg Fisher and Jack Berry, a young para-athlete who's cycling career is just beginning to unfold. Together, the two navigate life's obstacles with grace and integrity- creating space for the next generation of para cyclists.

Yellowstone 88 - Song Of Fire

5:44

In the summer of 1988 dry lightning sparked a fire in Yellowstone Park igniting a blaze that would scorch over 1.5 million perimeter acres. Song of Fire, the narrative poem that guides the animation, tells the story of this conflagration that raged unabated for months until a snow of such intense severity extinguished the flames.

Yolo Bypass Wildlife Area 7:00

Flooding season marks a special period of time in the Yolo Bypass Wildlife Area. Discover a slice of its natural history and wildlife by taking a ride on the 6 mile auto-loop tour where birds of all kind can be found, from Great Egrets hunting, to hundreds of migrating waterfowl flying in flocks along the Pacific Flyway.

The Rock Pool Waltz

8:00

The Rock Pool Waltz centres around a boys affinity with nature which helps to ease his worries and loneliness during the COVID lockdown. This leads him to an incredible friendship with an unlikely creature from the ocean.

Total Run Time: 43:37

For more information, contact monique@yubariver.org